RHS students recognized by NMS foundation

Twenty-one students at Richardson High School have been recognized by the National Merit Scholarship program and have received notification that they are either Semi-finalists or Letter of Commendation winners.

Under auspices of the National Merit Scholarship Foundation, tests are administered to junior students in high schools throughout the nation. Only the upper two per cent are cited.

SEMI-FINALISTS, who score in the many different colleges and universities in the nation. The scholarships are sponsored primarily by businesses and industries who participate in the NMS program.

Letter of Commendation winners make up the other one-half per cent making top grades on the nationwide competitive examination.

FINALISTS WILL BE announced in the Spring.

The 12 Semi-finalists at Richardson High are Donna L. Bale, Patrick Cowlishaw, Martin T. Cutrell, Robert W. Davidson, Gail M. Dickenson, Donald S.

Seniors Leave Mark

By TERRY BEAN

The seniors of '69 displayed their talents for the last time to the students of RHS. As a result, every ounce of energy was put fourth and they really "let it all hang out"

The laughter heard during Susie Shannon's "If Ever I Would Leave You" was not to show disrespect, but was due to the frolics of a pink balloon rising in the air.

Folk singer, Lisa Gates, captured the undivided attention of the audience when she sang and played the guitar to "And When I Die".

A tune from Peter, Paul and Mary, "The Judgement Day" was sung by Shawn Gagnon, who also played the guitar.

Ronnie Knight sang "Abraham, Martin, and John" and was accompanied by Sam Stevens.

The audience was "awed" by the amazing burlesque show of the four fat ladies, Sherry Hartman, Randy Jones, Debbie Moses, and Debbie Sholtess.

Following in the footsteps of the Jefferson Airplane was Pam Russell, who sang "White Rabbit". The musical background was played by Mike Brill and Sonny Weakley along with Rick Woodul on drums. A light show by Jay Monday supplemented the act.

The very "uneaglettish" seniors who performed included Sandra Abbot, Jan Alexander, Carla Crowley, Pat Gant, Sharon Hancock, Laurie Hoffman, Judy Livings, Carol Parton, Candy Primdahl, Sue Reithner, Lynn Schnittman, and Dian Zimmerman.

The country boy explaining the mysterious fight was Mark Moran. The mysterious fight was a football game.

Bill Parker displayed his unique ability of dramatic interpretation in "Diary of a Madman"

An insight was given by Liz Zahn on the way it might have been had the class of '69 graduated in 1900.

The show was brought to an end with Billy Hull Barbee and his Soul Band singing "Love is a Beautiful Thing" and "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy". Other members of the combo were Jimmy Baker, Steve Gardner, Royce Herndon, Mike Nahkunst, Brian McGregor, Terry Mitchell, Marshall Netherland, Eddy Norton, Jimmy Porter and Bill Scott.

Emcees for the event were Karlan Fairchild and Steve Alford.

Foreword

The people . . . ever moving, ever reaching, ever searching for a better world. We are the key to the future. Each of us is an individual existing as a part of the whole. Grasp hands with us and be as one.

We question; we learn; we fail; we succeed; yet we are ever pushing onward.

We are the people.

(good friend, ha!)
I feel that we have moved apart somewhat this year. That is good because it shows we are seeking our own goals and are accomplishing
I have many fond memories of things we have done together and you're one person
I'll never forget.
This school ~~now~~ would

'69 Eagle Band Best Yet

A tearful Darby Wollan receives the traditional roses from Band President Eric Krisl and Drum Major Larry Zeagler, minutes after being announced the 1968-69 Band Sweetheart.

R.H.S. topped all other schools in the region by placing the most members in the All-Region Band. Members were Jerry Barnes, Roberta Cleland, Patti Smith, Roxanne Cleland, Darby Wollan, Carl Jensen, Dale Brennan, Wayne Steinbring, Sharyn Schreiber, Marilyn Palmer, Nancy Palmer, Billy Davis, Ray Mussett, Larry Zeigler, Jay Phipps, Roger Grant, Dorothy F.

Randy Whelan,
Bellah, Ry-
berg, Hull-
Holland,
Charlotte S.

Eagle bandmen await the next rest stop on the way to Austin to perform at the University of Texas.

It all begins with May tryouts ... summer band: early hours, long rehearsals, sophomore drill, hot weather, sore feet ... football season ... halftime shows, parades, and pep rallies ... marching and more marching ... U.I.L. Marching Contest at Mesquite ... girl's slumber party: initiations, Senior Revue, cake, and fun ... surprise Saturday morning bandball cleanup ... then, concert season ... sectionals, challenges, and never-ending Thursday night rehearsals ... Austin trip ... region, area, and state competition ... concerts and more concerts ... solo and ensemble contest ... U.I.L. Contest ... result: Sweepstakes! ... Corpus Christi and the Buccaneer Festival ... the Senior Banquet ... the Senior Girls' Tea ... suddenly: the end, all but the memories of a tremendous band, an unforgettable year, and a truly great man.

Eric Krisl, Randy Whelan, Sharyn Schrieber, and Gordon Bellah, the 1968-69 Eagle Band officers, combine talent and responsibility.

G.E.B.: The Lighter Side

Under the watchful eye of upperclassmen, the sophomore girls enjoy the privilege of separating march folders at the annual slumber party.

Initiate Robyn Culver prepares to meet her doom at the hands of Laura Kirklen, Debbie Godich, Donna Dillon and Jo Ann Overman.

Mr. Collins demonstrates the wide variety of skills needed in being a band director.

Laura Kirklen and Pattie Dilmore visit at the Senior Tea.

Even Seniors like Virginia Hawes chipped in to help the surprised underclassmen at the 6:00 AM Saturday clean up.

P.A.S.F. Aids Peru

Car washes ... canceled football games ... poetry contests ... Spanish banquets ... district meetings and conventions ... Peruvian schools and libraries established with P.A.S.F. funds.

With a tremendous effort, Suzy Brandon brings down a rebound for the Fleas.

Boon Richards, crowned by Miss Richardson, Tina Edling, became the annual recipient of the "P.A.S.F. Sweetie" award.

Coach "Ick" Seidler discusses a few of the finer points of basketball with team members Cass O'Malley, Marsha Snowden, Nancy Bruton, Susan Canham, and Petie Corell.

Performing for a captive audience are the thrilling Golden Belles led by John Honeycutt, Bill Sieling, Randy Combs, Steve Baxter, and Glen Mesmer.

In the first project of their money-making drive, PASF'ers really clean up.

Spending nights of preparation prior to Convention ... winning prizes as a result of these efforts ... donning togas to dine in splendor at the annual banquet ... achieving knowledge of Latin through enjoyment ... et tu?

Keith Kendall seems to be lost in deep reverie during the course of a meeting.

Exchanging spurious glances, the two J.C.L. sponsors, Mrs. Jo Roberts and Mrs. Dotsey Roberts, sit in at a meeting in case their aid be needed.

Clustering around, the newly elected officers for 1969-70 are briefed by the officers of old.

Teachers Do Their Own Thing

Student teacher, Mr. A. B. Thomas, often came in handy when Mrs. Ruth Gray, speech instructor, needed forty winks!

Coach Abe Spangler and his partner rock-out to the sounds of the Mystics, at the Key Club victory dance.

Mr. John Taylor blows Eagle spirit sky-high!

"One mighty pull, and it all falls down," says Mr. Joe Collum, R.H.S. principal, to Mrs. Virginia Costlow.

Mr. J. T. Ibbotson lends a helping hand in setting up the scales for a chemistry experiment.

One of the more interesting foibles in Mrs. Carol Becker's senior English class was her unusual methods of motivation, such as this hangman's noose.

Yes, The People Are Teachers, Too

"Once upon a time . . .," begins Mrs. Carolyn Langlotz, as her junior English class decides to sleep, instead of study.

"Who says the teacher's lounge isn't necessary? With odds like Cele Rodriguez.

"... But Mr. Kelly, I said nothing about the cafeteria food," exclaims Mrs. Mary Betancourt.

"Now Mrs. Martin, you won't mind if I go to the Eagles Nest just this once," says Mark Adkins, as a typical annual staff scene takes place.

A common sight in A-hall is Mrs. Elizabeth Mann and David Cordell mulling over Student Council business.

125 to 2,750, we've got to have a place of refuge!", retorts Mr.

Faculty Bounces Seniors

"Establishment victorious—42-41 ... Cagers execute Globetrotter plays ... "fair" refs call "fair" game ... Mr. Collum bounces around as much as the ball ... Faculty yells "on to State" ...

Mr. Collum leads "the Establishment" on to victory.

Students finally get upper hand.

Physics teacher Ken Taylor calculates the velocity and distance of the ball.

"Moe" Grant thinks sweet revenge of his friend and coach, Coach Stone.

Some of the cagers look attentive? while watching the game.

Talent Show and Reception Highlight Dress-Up Day

Talented Lisa Gates performs for the Talent Assembly.

Sharon Hancock and David Grant enjoy the pastries served at the Senior Reception.

Debbie Moses, with friends Randy Jones, Sherry Hartman, and Debbie Sholtess, do their rendition of "The Stripper."

Pam Russel and Sonny Weakly perform "White Rabbit" with the added effect of a light show done by Jay Monday.

Steve Alford and Karlan Fairchild as emcees ... Mark Moran and his "big orange" ... Ron Knight and Sam Steven's version of "Abraham, Martin, and John" ... the Maharaja's harem in the form of the senior Eaglettes ... sitting through English in a suit and tie ... one thousand bottles of punch ... fifty dozen assorted cookies ... seniors, parents, and teachers together in the Eagles' Nest ... Senior Dress-Up Day 1969.

Susie Shannon takes the audience back to Camelot as she sings "If Ever I Would Leave You."

Shawn Gagnon plays an original folk song.

Joyce Skelton serves punch to the seniors and their parents.

Liz Zahn does a monologue on graduating a century ago.

For once, the seniors crack the whip.

Seniors Do Their Own Thing

Senior Casual Day ... sitting in class comfortably for once ... Pin Ball Wizard Don Fussell ... thirty bicycles on the Belt Line Circle ... RHS's very own guru Lawrence Cantor ... having lunch on the lawn ... regressing to childhood's "drop the handkerchief" ... teachers' clashy outfits ...

Casual Day can be tiring.

How do you like this Keene native?

Susie Shannon basks in her own radiance.

Bill Scott goes formal.

Senior Eaglette Appreciation Day was kicked off by a surprise Ranch Breakfast.

Queen Deanne Woodard and her court of Jean Richards, Karen Kennedy, Melinda Nelson and Sue Reithner reign over the Senior Prom 1969.

"One Last Shining Knight"

Shields covered with ivy ... The Southwest FOB ... the presentation of a traditional scepter ... the Conquistador Room ... May 10 ... special entertainment by Ron Knight, Sam Stevens, Shawn Gagnon, Lisa Gates, and Bryan Beuret ... gold tasseled programs ... chaperones in 16th century costumes ... a night to remember ... the 1969 Senior Prom.

During combo breaks, prom goers were entertained by talented seniors.

Deanne dances the spotlight dance with Senior Class President Fred Zeiller.

All moved back to let George Gorski have the floor.

Couples sign in on the scroll that was inside the Old English bazaar booth.

Dave Woodal and Melinda Wallis are served punch from the silver fountain.

Gary Dusek entertains Linda Longacre, Glenda Shaw, John Roberts, and Kathy Knox.

Seniors move to the sounds of the "Southwest FOB."

Karen Byler and Bruce Anderson find Rusty McBride and his antics hysterically funny.

Mrs. Carolyn Doyle, director of the Senior Play, gives the cast members some last minute instructions.

Seniors Inherit the Wind

Mr. Meeker, Bill Moore, wonders why such a lady as Rachel Brown would come into a jail.

A lovely luncheon for Col. Brady was prepared by the women of Hillsboro—Sarah Van Gitters, Pat Meek, and Vicki Keith.

Kevin Wings makes sure that he has enough wrinkles to be Mr. Bannister.

As Brady suddenly falls, townspeople rush forward to offer assistance.

Bob Ralph portrays the dynamic Matthew Harrison Brady.

The Rev. Jeremiah Brown, commonly known as Jay Monday, leads the townspeople at the prayer meeting.

Inherit the Wind ...thirty-five people to age in thirty minutes ... a monkey who had quite a few accidents ... a prayer before opening night ... rehearsals in the Eagle's Nest ... the revival scene with Tricia Legult as Mrs. Krebs ... Mrs. Doyle losing her voice Saturday night ... 200 pieces of real chicken ... Mike Odom's white shoes ... a half-filled auditorium ... Sonny Weakley's faces ... Hayden Knox's antics while putting on his make-up ... David Seidler's beard ... Senior Play 1969.

E. K. Hornbeck, Mike Odom, welcomes Henry Drummond, Steven Ruback to "Heavenly Hillsboro."

Bryan Beuret as Bertram Cates, addresses the jury before the sentence is passed.

"Let No Man Say I'm Too Young

The 1969 RHS Choir sings together for the last time on May 25 ... Baccalaureate 1969.

Graduation and Baccalaureate ... sighs of relief mingled with tears ... a purple robe and mortarboard ... speeches, farewells, and applause ... singing the Alma Mater for the last time as a student of RHS ... lingering memories of sharing one's life with classmates through the years ... receiving your diploma with a trembling hand ... changing the tassel to the right side ... the gate to pathways unexplored ... the start of all dreams.

Seniors adjust caps and tassels one last time before the processional.

With a Milestone Passed, Grads Relax

Even into the wee hours of the morning, seniors danced to the sounds of the "Soul Purpose."

Rodney Dickenson seems to have run into a streak of bad luck at the Blackjack table.

1969 All-Night Party ... Spring Valley Country Club ... losing all your money at the roulette wheel while waiting for that certain number to come up ... realizing that by four o'clock a.m. a swimming pool gets kind of cold ... doing the "Broadway Walk" to the sounds of the "Soul Purpose" ... finding out that Bingo is your speed of gambling ... helping David or Lawrence win a sport coat at the auction ... feeling very sleepy, but very happy at five in the morning.

Some seniors seemed wary of the water, while others jumped right in.

Suzanne Golob and a partner have a private game going.
Seniors 298

The casino set up in the "Tiki Room" attracted many expert seniors.

SPOUSE: Bart, Information Systems Analyst
WHAT'S UP: I've lived in Wyoming and now Colorado. I had 4 cervical vertebrae fused 3 years ago (ouch!). Since then I've been doing a lot of gardening, art (clay and stained glass), raising my kids (2 ferrets, 2 birds, a cat and a dog), practicing Tai Chi, and being a volunteer coordinator for the animal shelter.
MEMORIES: Being with friends.

WHAT'S UP: I recently remarried after 9 years of being single. I play the violin and snow ski. I'm into genealogy. I'm being a grandpa to my granddaughter of 4 months. I am active in my church. I fish and golf when I can. I still own and operate my business for 25 years now. I am still just as busy. I recently finished a 10-year teaching stint at Eastfield College. I went back to school a few years back and finished a 2-year degree.

WHAT'S UP: Playing a lot of golf; traveling a lot (and playing a lot of golf) with several American Bar Assoc. groups; working as little as possible; trying lawsuits, settling most; enjoying kids growing up and watching their sports. Brad is in soccer. Matt is in golf. We're enjoying having them both gone, but "kind of" missing them a little and looking forward to UT football and UNM basketball.

MEMORIES: All the great sports and championships at RHS; football, basketball, baseball, track. It certainly wasn't that way at Paschal High with football; they've been terrible, hard to watch. Soccer and golf were great, but who really cares but us parents? I miss football & basketball winners in Ft. Worth. We were spoiled at RHS.

WHAT'S UP: I just returned to Texas after 9 years.

I enjoy living near Lake Travis and getting into boating/water-skiing again. It's a busy time of life with teenagers; lots of soccer, chauffeuring, church involvement. It's a great time of life in my family.

MEMORIES: Going to the senior all-night party with David Cordell when we were juniors. It was a magic evening.

WHAT'S UP: Our interests are centered on our large garden and yard; roses, grapes, vegetables, and trees; avocado, banana, fig, apple, peach, orange, tangerine, lemon and lime. On travel (Western U.S. states, Europe, Caribbean) and on skiing in the winter. Linda's hobbies include quilting, hiking and reading. Ken enjoys hiking and wine-making.

MEMORIES: Trying out for the drill team with my best friend, Mary Mastuson Liddle. The splits required at the end of the tryouts nearly killed me. Needless to say, we didn't make the cut, but we did join the newly-formed pep squad and enjoyed all the excitement surrounding the football games.

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.
New-made friendships, like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test—
Time and change—are surely best;
Brow may wrinkle, hair grow gray,
Friendship never knows decay.
For 'mid old friends, tried and true,
Once more we our youth renew.
But old friends, alas! may die,
New friends must their place supply.
Cherish friendship in your breast—
New is good, but old is best;
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.

Joseph Parry
